A Guide and Suggested Conference Agenda

Monday/9.7
6:00p–8:00p
LEVEL 4 Nolita1

Not certified for credit
This guide can be used by itself or in conjunction with the live PAINWeek 101 session offered below. The PAINWeek 101 live session will be led by PAINWeek veterans, faculty, staff, and representatives from the CE/CME provider. No preregistration is necessary.

PAINWeek 101 Live Session

Monday, September 7
6:00p – 8:00p
Level 4/Nolita 1
Introduction

PAINWeek 101 was developed for first-time attendees and any others wanting to get the most from their PAINWeek experience. This guide can be used independently or in tandem with the live session.

Onsite Registration

Welcome to PAINWeek! Now in its 9th year, PAINWeek is the nation’s largest pain conference for frontline practitioners. Over 2000 of your colleagues from many disciplines and specialties are attending this year’s conference—proof of the level of interest in this critical healthcare issue and of the value of PAINWeek in addressing the concern.

The registration desk for PAINWeek is located in the Belmont Commons on Level 4 of The Cosmopolitan. The desk is open each day of the conference, on the following schedule:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Day</th>
<th>Time</th>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

TIP—If you plan to check in to the hotel on Monday, take advantage of the Monday registration option. Sessions start at 8:10a on Tuesday; beat the crowd and be ready to go!

The PAINWeek Online Content Library

Unlike many other conferences, the PAINWeek curriculum provides many session electives (usually 4 or 5) in each time period. This means that you can customize your learning experience, but also means that much more content is available than you can personally attend.

You can, however, experience ALL of the PAINWeek sessions—including those you don’t get to while onsite! Purchase the PAINWeek Online Content Package for $299 to access all 130+ hours of content online (slides and synced audio) with the ability to earn CE/CME. Package price increases to $1299 after the conference. Online content will be available after October 1st. Find out more in your conference materials received at registration.

NOTE: Due to copyright restrictions and other factors, certain sessions may not be available online.
What’s at PAINWeek?

The Curriculum: An Overview

The PAINWeek curriculum offers our attendees over 130 hours of continuing medical education. Over the 5 days of the conference, most people can earn up to 39 credit hours. A suggested schedule for first-time attendees (PAINWeek 101: A Suggested Conference Agenda) has been compiled for your reference. You’ll find it at the back of this guide and on our website.

The CE/CME core curriculum is organized into over 20 tracks/session codes covering the following fields of interest:

- AHS  American Headache Society
- APS  American Pain Society
- ASAM  American Society of Addiction Medicine
- BHV  Behavioral Pain Management
- CAM  Complementary & Alternative Medicine
- HCH  Health Coaching
- INT  Interventional Pain Management
- KEY  Keynote
- MAS  Master Class Series
- MDL  Medical/Legal
- MSK  Musculoskeletal Pain Conditions
- NAD  National Association of Drug Diversion Investigators
- NRO  Neurology
- NRP  Nurse Practitioner
- PAL  Palliative Care
- PDM  Product, Disease, & Medical Information Program
- PEF  Pain Educators Forum
- PHM  Pharmacotherapy
- POD  Podiatric Pain Syndromes
- POS  Poster Sessions/Podium Presentations
- PREPEF  Neuropathica Galactica
- REG  Regional Pain Syndromes
- SIS  Special Interest Session
- SYM  Satellite Symposia

NEW for 2015

As you design your individual conference schedule, you’ll want to be aware of the following NEW elements in the core curriculum. Detailed descriptions may be found in your red program book.

- Special full-day programs
  - American Academy of Pain Medicine (AAPM)
  - American Headache Society (AHS)
  - American Pain Society (APS)
  - American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM)
  - National Association of Drug Diversion Investigators (NADDI)
- Special Interest Session (SIS) track: of the 30+ session offerings, many topics are new to PAINWeek and include:
  - Is That Medicine Real or Counterfeit?
  - Let No Man Write My Epitaph: Managing Chronic Pain in the Patient With Addiction
  - Virtual Reality: Does It Have a Role in Pain Management?
  - The Groundhog Day Phenomenon
  - Pain Clinical Trials
  - Who’s On First? Pain Specialists Discuss Their Approaches to Pain Management
  - The Bulletproof Prescriber
  - Understanding DEA Requirements for Electronic Prescribing of Controlled Substances
Satellite Events

Satellite events are commercially supported activities that complement the PAINWeek curriculum. There are no fees to attend any of these educational activities. Because seating is strictly limited, preregistration is usually required, and preference will be given to preregistrants.

Visit conference.painweek.org/attendees/symposia-satellite-events to learn more and register.

Please plan on arriving at the door no later than 10 minutes prior to start time to ensure that your seat is held for you. A limited number of meals or refreshments will be served where indicated.

Satellite events include both certified (SYM) and noncertified programs (PDM). Session descriptions for certified activities, faculty disclosures, and protocol for obtaining CE/CME credit will be provided by individual event organizers. Please contact the organizers for further details.

Special Events

Be sure to make note of the following SPECIAL events scheduled throughout the conference:

- Keynote Address: Wednesday, September 9, at 5:30p, Level 4/Mont-Royal Ballroom
  - The Keynote Address at PAINWeek 2015 will be delivered by Charles Argoff, MD
- Welcome Reception: Wednesday, September 9, 6:30p, following the Keynote Address
  - Meet fellow attendees, faculty, and exhibitors in the Exhibit Hall, Level 4/Belmont Ballroom
- Poster Session and Reception: Thursday, September 10, at 7:00p, Level 3/Gracia 7
  - To enrich the attendee experience, we offer poster sessions to share the latest information from current research and clinical findings. Podium presentations are scheduled for Friday, September 11, 7:00a – 7:55p, Level 3/Gracia 7
- Exhibit Hall Closing Reception and Drawing: Friday, September 11, 4:00p

- “I Went to PAINWeek and…”
  - What will you do differently when you return to work on Monday? Tell us and you could win a FREE iPad Mini 3 and registration to PAINWeek 2016! Pick up a mini red/black/white questionnaire and write your top 3 take-home pearls. We’ll post your answers on the PAINWeek Wall located in the registration area and later on the PAINWeek website.

The Exhibit Hall and Poster Session/Hours

As you plan your PAINWeek experience don’t forget to leave time in your schedule for several visits to the Exhibit Hall. You’ll find over 100 exhibits with representatives ready to demonstrate their latest products and offer information on the most advanced equipment, supplies, and services for your practice. Morning and afternoon breaks are built into the conference schedule, and these are good times to visit.

The posters are available for viewing on Level 3/Gracia 7 during the hours listed below.

Getting Around PAINWeek

The Conference

Conference activities will take place primarily on Levels 3 and 4. You will find floor maps of the conference facilities in your red program book. There is also interactive directional signage to assist in locating specific areas and rooms. Electronic displays located outside each conference room will detail the scheduled activities for that space. Please watch for last-minute schedule changes by monitoring these boards.

The Cosmopolitan

The Cosmopolitan of Las Vegas offers an abundance of amenities for PAINWeek attendees. Visit www.cosmopolitanoflasvegas.com to read about the Restaurant Collection (under the Taste tab), and other features of the resort that you will want to check out during your PAINWeek experience.

The City

The Cosmopolitan is conveniently located next to Bellagio and CityCenter, and is a short cab ride from McCarran International Airport (approximate cab fare $15).

An alternative to the Restaurant Collection is just across Las Vegas Boulevard at the food court, located in the Miracle Mile Shops. Many other dining and entertainment options are also available. Check out the nearby Walgreen’s, which has a large selection of groceries for your convenience.

The Coffee

The BrainBuzz Café is located in the PAINWeek Bookstore, providing that essential morning ingredient in a convenient location. We thank our Café sponsors for underwriting this amenity, and we’re sure you will, too!

Getting Updates

To get late-breaking news, reminders, session or room changes, follow us on Twitter at twitter.com/PAINWeek.

PAINWeek Mobile

PAINWeek 2015 is mobile! Download the event app to your smartphone, tablet, or laptop by visiting m.painweek.org. The mobile app will allow you to view session schedules and create your own agenda, learn about exhibitors and sponsors, view floor maps, and much more. If you have any questions about accessing the app, please visit the PAINWeek staff at the registration desk outside of the Exhibit Hall (Belmont Commons).

Obtaining Credit for CE/CME Session Attendance

PAINWeek is provided by Global Education Group, accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education. You’ll find Accreditation Statements by specialty in your white CME program book. NOTE: A representative of Global Education Group will be in attendance at PAINWeek 101 and will be onsite throughout the conference. Please direct your questions on this topic at the conclusion of the 101 session, or at your convenience at the Global Education desk, located opposite the conference registration area on Level 4, outside of the Exhibit Hall (Belmont Ballroom).

In order to receive credit, participants must attend the session and complete the online credit application at painweek.org and evaluation form by Wednesday, September 30. No applications for credit will be processed after this date.

Participants can only claim the hours they were actually in attendance. Statements of credit and certificates of attendance are available to print upon completion of online forms.
Instructions for Credit — In order to receive credit, pharmacist participants must attend an entire session and complete the online credit application and evaluation form. These forms are available to complete at painweek.org/evals. An NABP number and date of birth must have been provided during registration to obtain credit. If you did not previously provide this information, please stop at the CME desk, and they can update your records. Please bring this information with you to the conference for use while completing your evaluations.

If you still need to create an NABP e-Profile and obtain an ID number, please visit:

http://nabp.net

Notification of successful completion of sessions will be communicated by Global Education Group to the ACPE CPE Monitor system, where all pharmacy learners’ credits are stored. Learner errors providing NABP numbers and/or DOB will result in unsuccessful reporting of credits to the CPE Monitor system. These credits will not be recorded. Ensuring records are accurate and complete will be the responsibility of the individual learner.

FAQs

Why is there a red program book and a white CME information booklet, and what’s the difference?

Our CME provider, Global Education Group, requires that accreditation information cannot appear in any materials that contain promotional symposia/event information. Thus, the red program guide contains information on all activities (certified and noncertified sessions, exhibitor information, special events, etc). The white booklet contains only accreditation information, the agenda, and session information for certified sessions. It does not contain any advertising or promotional event information.

Our suggestion is to first look through the red program guide to see "the big picture" and then refer to the accreditation information stated in the first few pages of the white booklet. We realize that this is a bit cumbersome, but we must adhere to the rules. To make things easier, copies of the full conference schedule will be available at the registration desk, so you don't have to carry around either of the guides. This agenda will note which sessions are certified and which are not.

Do I need to attend everything on the schedule?

No, and with up to 5 offerings in each time slot, it would not be possible to do so. In the 5 days of the conference, PAINWeek offers many different types of programming and sessions totalling over 120+ hours of CE/CME credit. It is important to plan your personal curriculum to best suit your individual practice and educational needs. If there are sessions being presented concurrently that you would like to experience, you can purchase access to the recorded package (slides and synced audio) of most CE/CME sessions for $149 at the conference registration area. (Package price increases to $249 after the conference). Please note that it is highly unlikely that PDM sessions and symposia will be recorded.
Do I need to preregister for any sessions?

Yes—The following sessions require preregistration:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Session</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>9:00a - 5:00p</td>
<td>PREPEF</td>
<td>NEUROPATHICA GALACTICA</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>SIS-01</td>
<td>CONNECTING THE ANATOMICAL DOTS FOR COMMON PAIN SYNDROMES: AN OVERVIEW OF INJECTION TECHNIQUES FOR FRONTLINE PRACTITIONERS</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1:35p - 3:30p</td>
<td>MAS-01</td>
<td>NEUROGENIC THORACIC OUTLET SYNDROME</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>1:35p - 3:30p</td>
<td>MAS-05</td>
<td>PATIENT CENTERED URINE DRUG TESTING: A CASE BASED APPROACH</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

All other PAINWeek sessions are free to attend as you wish; there is no preregistration required.

Note: Adding sessions to your personal agenda on the PAINWeek mobile app does not preregister you for the sessions listed above.

EXCEPTIONS: Meal symposia and PDM programs, about which you should have received information in the mail, tote bag, or room drop. All meal symposia and PDM programs are listed online at conference.painweek.org/attendees/symposia-satellite-events or in the program book. Because there is limited seating for these meal activities, we recommend you preregister well before arriving onsite in Las Vegas. If you would like to attend an activity that may be completely booked you can still try by showing up early in front of the activity room.

How will I request/receive my CE/CME credit?

You can do this from your own laptop or at home. Many attendees choose to complete the forms at breaks or after each day. In order to receive credit, participants must attend the session and complete the online credit application at painweek.org/evals and evaluation form by Wednesday, September 30. No applications for credit will be processed after this date.

Hint: Keeping notes and key thoughts about each session and faculty speaker during the conference will help you if you decide to do your evaluations and credit requests at a later date.
PAINWeek 101: A Suggested Conference Agenda

Global Education Group, program faculty, and PAINWeek staff have developed a recommended conference agenda for first-time attendees and those wanting to maximize their PAINWeek experience. This agenda is designed to offer the broadest possible exposure to the various tracks, faculty, and symposia that are featured at this year’s PAINWeek. Keep in mind these are only suggested sessions and you are encouraged to attend any session that best fits your professional and educational needs. Please refer to the program book for a full list of sessions.
